

The Federal Communications Commission is offering an Emergency Broadband Benefit

This new benefit will:

- Help families and households struggling to afford Internet service during the COVID-19 pandemic.
- Connect eligible households to jobs, critical health care services, virtual classrooms and more.

Read information about the benefit and eligibility requirements here.